

The background of the entire page is a classical painting, likely 'The Descent from the Cross' by Peter Paul Rubens. It depicts several figures in a dramatic, dimly lit scene, with strong contrasts of light and shadow. The figures are shown in various poses, some holding long poles or staffs, suggesting a processional or a moment of great physical effort. The color palette is dominated by dark, earthy tones like browns, greys, and muted greens, with highlights of flesh tones and some brighter areas where light hits the figures' bodies or clothing.

Dear Parishioners,

There is a lot of concern among our fellow parishioners regarding the Corona Virus and if we are going to make any changes to our current practices at Mass. At the time of this writing (February 28, 2020), there have been no extra directives given by the Archdiocese. If that changes, we will certainly implement them.

In the meantime, I would like to remind people of current practices in place. One of the most important things to remember is that missing Mass because you are sick is not a sin. In fact, missing Mass because you are afraid of passing your illness on to other parishioners is an act of charity towards them. So, if you are ill and worried about spreading your germs, please stay home. You are not sinning.

In response to this, some people have said, "Father, I'm old school. I never miss Mass for any reason including sickness." Well, I don't want to sound too snarky here, but if you were really old school you'd listen to what your pastor is teaching you and not question his judgement on this. Seriously, if you think you are ill and you believe that you can spread your germs to others stay home. Going to Mass when you are ill and contagious is really more of a prideful thing than a humble acceptance of Church teaching.

As far as our practices at Mass, one thing that comes up is receiving communion from the cup. Please know that you are not under any obligation to receive from the cup. Choosing to abstain from the cup does not mean you are receiving less communion than anyone else in Church. It is simply one kind of reception. Receiving the precious body alone is as full of an experience of communion as receiving under both kinds.

Also, there is an odd belief among some people that you cannot get sick from receiving from the cup. Their belief is that because the wine in the cup has been changed into the blood of Christ it is impossible for any type of sickness to be spread through it. I won't go into the theology of Transubstantiation right now, but I will say that even if that was true, germs could still spread through the outside of the cup since many people touch it.

My point is that if you do not want to receive from the cup, do not receive. It really can spread germs.

Also, after we recite the Our Father, we offer each other a sign of peace which usually comes in the form of a handshake. Some people are, honestly, uncomfortable with this for reasons that include fear of spreading germs. Actually shaking hands during this part of the Mass is not the only way to offer a sign of peace. So, if anyone doesn't want to shake your hand at the sign of peace that's ok. You or anyone else is not obliged to do so.

As far as receiving on the tongue (again, at the time of this writing) there have been no directives about this from the Archdiocese, and those who prefer to receive on the tongue still have a right to do so. If that is what you would like to do you can continue, but in light of the present situation you might consider receiving on the hand. Still, it is your call and we will honor that.

SEGUNDO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA.

II PARTE DE LA MISA: LITURGIA EUCARISTICA

Santo

El prefacio termina con este canto de alabanza a Dios. La letra está tomada totalmente de las Sagradas Escrituras. La primera parte, es un canto que hemos aprendido del coro de los ángeles, que el profeta Isaías oyó que le cantaban a Dios junto a su trono. El tres veces santo repetido, nos recuerda las tres personas divinas de la Santa Trinidad. Y la segunda parte es la aclamación que le dicen a Jesús cuando está entrando montado en un burrito a Jerusalén el domingo de Ramos: “¡Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor, hosanna!” Estaban felices aclamando Jesús, el rey esperado, que entraba a su ciudad.

Nosotros en la misa también aclamamos a Cristo que está a las puertas de hacerse presente ante nosotros. Por eso podemos decir que el santo, es un canto de hombres y ángeles, que nos unimos para alabar a Dios.

Es el momento en el cual se invoca al Espíritu Santo para que santifique las ofrendas de pan y vino que hemos presentado. Por eso en ese momento el sacerdote extiende e impone las dos manos sobre las ofrendas.

Así como el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre la Virgen María para que concibiera e hiciera presente a Jesús en su seno, ahora invocamos al Espíritu Santo para que descienda sobre estos dones y también haga presente a Cristo entre nosotros.
